Thai Tapas

Thai Wrap – strips of fresh chicken, marinated, and wrapped with red onion, vegetable fries, salad, spring onion, coriander and smothered in our homemade satay sauce and sprinkled with ground peanuts. (contains peanuts) (GF)	7.50
Box to Go – our popular street food starter combo of chicken satay, spring rolls, pork and sesame toast, crispy wonton and corn fritters with a plum sauce dip. (v) Regular £10.00, Small £5.00. (contains peanuts)	10.00 5.00
Gàì Sà-té - (chicken satay). Succulent pieces of marinated chicken skewered on a bamboo stick then grilled, served with salad, and smothered in our homemade satay sauce (sauce contains peanuts). (sauce contains peanuts) . (GF)	5.95
Gùng Hòm Pàa – (king prawn blankets). The king of prawns, sleeping, and snugly wrapped in a blanket of filo pastry will excite your taste buds as you bite through the crispy golden-brown layers, leaving you craving for the next one.	5.45
Tôt Man Kàao-Pôht – (corn fritters). I love the taste of corn freshly scraped off the cob. What a crazy idea to mix these soft yellow kernels with Thai flour, blend them into a batter and deep-fry. Fantastic! (v)	5.25
Bpang Naa Mồ – (pork & sesame toast). It may seem a strange idea: to put minced pork onto a piece of bread, cover it with sesame seeds and then deep-fry it, but Thai food is different and this dish tastes fantastic. (contains sesame)	4.50
Poh Pia Tort - (crispy spring rolls). Our homemade spring rolls with tasty vegetables wrapped snugly in filo pastry then deep fried, suitable for vegetarians and vegans. (v)	5.25
Moo Ping - (grilled pork on skewers). A favourite on the streets of Thailand. Strips of pork marinated with Thai herbs and spices then grilled and served on salad, best eaten with sticky rice and your fingers.	5.25
Tung Tong - (golden money bags). Fresh vegetables, carrot, potato, green pea, sweet corn wrapped in filo pastry bags then deep fried in vegetable oil and served with plum sauce. (v)	4.25
Prawn Crackers – Crispy crackers made from Atlantic prawn and served with a sweet chilli dip (GF)	2.35
